

2020 IJM Trip to Cebu, Philippines

26 April – 2 May 2020

International Justice Mission (IJM) Singapore is taking a team of friends and supporters to see and experience IJM's work first-hand. We hope you will join us! Come witness the need for justice in Cebu, Philippines and see what IJM is doing to bring rescue to victims of cybersex trafficking.

Join us as we:

- Meet and encourage IJM's local field office leadership and staff.
- Learn about IJM's justice system transformation initiatives.
- Meet IJM's local NGO partners and aftercare providers to see how aftercare transforms lives in cases of exploitation against children.
- Experience the local culture by visiting city centres and local eateries.

The trip fee is US$1,400.00 (excluding airfare).

The trip fee includes in-country transportation, lodging, meals, activities, hosting fees and miscellaneous expenses. The trip fee does not cover international flights and travel insurance to the host country, visa fees (if applicable), international health insurance coverage, and immunizations related to traveling to the host country (if needed).

Please contact Lydia Bowden, Director of Strategic Partnerships, IJM Singapore at lbowden@ijm.org

The participant is responsible for all expenses related to his/her trip. In the event of trip cancellation for any reason by either IJM or the participant, the participant will be responsible for any expenses incurred on his/her behalf toward trip costs.*
